

Younger Students

The Health Arts College does not accept students under the age of 18 years

If an application is made and the candidate is less than 18 years of age, Administration will notify the applicant of THA's policy not to enroll an applicant under the age of 18.

Where The Health Arts College, commences to deliver training to students under the age of 18 a policy will be developed to align with the Victorian Ministerial order No/ 870 Child Safe Standards-Victoria-Managing the risk of child abuse in schools.